The heav-ens de-clare the glo-ry of God. and the sky a-bove pro-claims his hand - i - work. Day to day He pour out speech, and night to night re-veals know - ledge. There is no speech, nor are therewords, whose voice is not heard. His voice go out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them_ He has set a tent for the sun, which comes out like a bride-groom leav - ing his cham - ber, and like a strong_ man, runs its course_ with joy_ it's ris - ing is from the end of the heav - ens. and it's cir-cuit to the end_ of them. and there is noth-ing hid-den from its heat._
