

Psalm 111 Word For Word [G#, 115 bpm]

[Zac Fitzsimmons]

G# Cm Fm D#

G# Cm

Praise the Lord!

Fm D#
I will give thanks to the Lord

G#
with my whole heart,

Cm Fm
in the company of the upright,

D#
in the congregation.

G# Cm Fm

Great are the works of the Lord,

D# G# Cm

studied by all who delight in them.

Fm D# C#
Full of splendor and majesty is his work,

D# G# Cm

Fm
and his righteousness endures forever.

D# G# Cm Fm D#

endures forever.

C# D#
He has caused his wondrous works

G#
to be remembered;

Fm C# G# D#
the Lord is gracious and merciful.

C# D# G#
He provides food for those who fear him;

Fm C# G# D#
he remembers his covenant forever.

Fm ///|//// C# ///|////
G# ///|//// D# ///|////

Fm C#
He has shown his people the power

G#
of his works, in giving them

D#
the inheritance of the nations.

Fm C# G#
The works of his hands are faithful and just;

D#
all his precepts are trustworthy; they are

Fm C# G#
established forever and ever,

D#
to be performed with faithfulness

and uprightness.

C# G#
He sent redemption to his people;

C# G#
he has commanded his covenant forever.

Fm C# G#
Holy and awesome is his name!

D# Fm C# G#

D#
The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom;

C# G#
all those who practice it

D# Fm
have a good understanding.

C# G# D#

His praise endures

G# Cm Fm

forever!

D# G# Cm Fm

His praise endures forever!

D# G# Cm Fm

His praise endures forever!

D# G# Cm Fm D#

His praise endures forever!

C#